

James (Jay) W. Cooper

As an owner since 1991, Jay owns three weeks at Camaron Cove and was first elected to the Board in 2014. For much of this time, Jay has served as the Board's Treasurer. Involved with many projects during his tenure, Jay is very excited to have assisted with many enhancement initiatives especially with the current remodeling of the master bathrooms, their new flooring, the purchase of bedroom furniture and the installation of improved lighting. Jay wants Camaron Cove Resort to be a "home away from home" for its owners while keeping it up to date. As a local resident, living just seven miles from the resort, Jay has been on-site quickly to handle his responsibilities as Treasurer. Jay graduated from Largo High School, Pinellas Vocational Technical Institute (now Pinellas Technical College) and St. Petersburg Junior College (now St. Petersburg College). After 36 years of dedicated service to the city Engineering Department as Senior Public Works Designer familiar with civil and architectural terminology and overseeing city initiated projects, Jay is enjoying his retirement and the important work being done by the CCR Board of Directors.

Rick De Jong

Since 2007, Rick, his wife, and their grown children, have made CCR their second home owning, in total, 8 weeks at CCR. Extended family members account for an additional 15 weeks of CCR ownership. Since 2016, Rick has served as a Director and, currently, as the Board's secretary, is involved with the fine work the Board and VPM do to safeguard and enhance Camaron Cove Resort. Prior to his retirement, Rick successfully served as an educator and school principal for 34 years. His interests include supporting a local youth community theatre group, baking bread, playing hockey, running and being involved with a busy family and several community organizations. Rick is strongly committed to supporting the initiatives and practices of the CCR Board of Directors, working closely with Mark Bodine, and the staff of Vacation Property Management to promote a positive and memorable experience for its owners and visitors. Rick looks forward to continuing with the Board and VPM to support, enhance, and protect the significant investment owners have in Camaron Cove Resort.

Sandy Farrell

Our current Board (BOD) President, Sandy Farrell has served on the BOD for the last four years. Sandy is proud of the work that the BOD and VPM Management and staff have accomplished during this timeframe and wishes to continue the excellent work in keeping our resort beautiful and desirable while still keeping our costs reasonable and in tune with our owners' wishes as well as with industry demands and economic considerations. Sandy and her partner have 5 adult children and 3 grandchildren. They reside in Illinois and have just purchased a home in Florida. They are proud owners of eleven weeks at Camaron Cove Resort as well as ownerships at several other timeshares. Sandy is very familiar with concerns of timeshare owners and sensitive to the demands of a mature ownership base and the unique needs of a mature resort. As a retiree from AT&T, she brings over 27 years experience in all areas of accounting, budgeting, cost controls, and contract reviews and has served as an expert accounting witness in various proceedings. With her educational background, BS in Accounting from The University of Illinois, an MBA from DePaul University, with a minor in corporate taxation, she brings much expertise in helping to manage and update our resort while effectively maximizing maintenance fees and reserves. Owner suggestions and guidance are always welcomed and needed as we work together to insure that we all have a treasured beach vacation experience with wonderful family memories that will last for years. When you come to CCR each year, she hopes that you and yours get that wonderful feeling of coming back home! She and the entire Board appreciate your input and continued support.

Special Olympics national coaching, national conference presenter, and volunteering with the Friends of the Library Boards in Hillsborough County, Florida are some of Flo's varied experiences that she brings to the Board. Splitting her time between Florida and Minnesota, Flo has been active on the Board co-chairing the Furniture, Fixture and Equipment committee (FFE) which was responsible for revamping and significantly enhancing the rooms; the work of the FFE continues as we "strive to provide the ultimate beach vacation and experience through excellence in service and hospitality." Flo is pleased to serve as vice-president of the Board of Directors.

Sheila Pedersen

Having completed her first year on the Board of Directors, Sheila is enjoying this privilege and responsibility and looks forward to continuing as a Director. Sheila owns several weeks at CCR and enjoys making Camaron Cove her awesome winter home. The Pedersen family farmed and raised cattle in Minnesota for 40 years. Sheila also taught school for 30 years. After her husband passed, Sheila moved to South Dakota to be closer to her children and five grandchildren. After retiring, Sheila worked at UBS Financial as a CSA. As well, she volunteered at Shine helping seniors with Medicare and as a reading mentor at a Spanish immersion school. After spending nine weeks at Cameron Cove this year, Sheila has a clearer picture of the extensive and challenging job there is in maintaining and operating our resort; as well, Sheila has a deeper appreciation of the effort the Board makes to address owner concerns in a reasonable manner, while always keeping safety and the budget in mind when making its decisions. Sheila feels Camaron Cove is a wonderful resort blessed with a hard-working, dedicated and committed staff.
